

English exam answers BEPC2012

A-Situations

I used to study very hard, spending long hours reviewing my notes and doing exercises to make sure I understood the material.

I always came to class on time and never missed a day, even when I was feeling tired or sick.

I didn't play much during the school year, as I wanted to focus on my studies and do well in my classes.

I would wake up early in the morning to have enough time to review my notes and prepare for the day ahead.

I would always go to bed at a reasonable hour to make sure I got enough sleep and was well-rested for the next day of school.

I respected my teachers and always asked them for help if I didn't understand something, rather than trying to cheat or take shortcuts.

I didn't watch much television during the school year, as I wanted to use my time wisely and focus on my studies.

- a- The book that I bought was very expensive.
- b- The man whose car is red is my brother.
- c- The lady who is calling you is mad.
- d- The man whose turban is blue speaks English fluently.
- e- The computer that is on the table is mine.