

English exam answers BEPC.2015

A-Comparisons between Toyota and Mercedes:

Speed: Mercedes is faster than Toyota, with more horsepower and torque.

Luxury: Mercedes has a more luxurious interior with higher-end materials and features.

Fuel Economy: Mercedes tends to have better fuel economy than Toyota.

Price: Mercedes is typically more expensive than Toyota, but it also holds its value better.

Style: Mercedes has a more elegant and distinctive design than Toyota.

B-Adverb Forms:

a- Fatima found the answer quickly.

b- He sings gently.

c- He made the case quite fast.

d- They studied the case quite well.

e- It did not rain heavily last year. (Note: "heavy" is an adjective, not an adverb. The adverb form is "heavily". In this sentence, however, the adjective form is appropriate.)